How We Started

Flat Five came to life in 2018, sparked by a heartfelt request from a close friend who asked us to create a band for his wedding. That simple yet meaningful moment led our friend Fano Oey to gather us together, and that's how it all started.

With years of experience playing music in church, we quickly realized that we could create more than just melodies—we could help make life's most important moments unforgettable.

Our tagline, "Won't Forget The Vibes," speaks to our mission. We are here to ensure your special day is filled with music and memories that will last a lifetime.

THE VOW

The perfect package to bring a heavenly atmosphere on the altar. Made only for your special day.

A close-up photograph of a wedding ceremony. A bride's hand, wearing a white lace sleeve with pearls, and a groom's hand, wearing a black suit sleeve, are clasped together over an open Bible. The Bible has a white cover with a row of red, semi-circular tabs along the bottom edge. The background is softly blurred, showing other guests and a bouquet of white flowers.
