In case of cancellations by customers, Down Payment and Second Payment (40%) will not be refunded. Payment of the DP invoice means customer fully agrees with all Kaminari terms on all documents and letters sent to the customer.

Each product has its own MOQ (minimum order quantity). If your order is below the MOQ, there will be an extra charge.

If you wish to pick-up your order yourself or have an alternative packing method, feel free to discuss with us your preferred arrangement. If you are shipping out of town or country, we will require compulsory extra bubble wrapping or wooden box, which will come at an extra cost. However, this will ensure the souvenirs will arrive safely.
