Terms and Conditions

- Prices are valid from 1 January 2025 to 31 March 2026, and subject to 21% government tax and service charge.
- Minimum of two nights' stay at any categories is required.
- For quality and liability reasons, the hotel does not allow any outside catering on its premises. However, in circumstances where the hotel may not be able to provide specific dishes, its management may agree to making an exception and approve vendors in advance but cannot be held responsible for any eventualities.
- Final confirmation of food and beverages with the expected number of guests must be confirmed 30 days prior to the event date in order to guarantee availability of ingredients. Confirmation after 30 days prior to the event date is subject to availability. Please alert us of any dietary restrictions or requirements 14 days prior to the event at the latest in order to cater for the requirements.
- The hotel takes its security procedures very seriously and therefore requests advance notice of the involvement of any outside suppliers, contractors or entertainers as they would be required to enter and exit the resort through the security office. Full information and requirement of any suppliers, contractors or entertainers should be submitted 14 days prior to the event date. Otherwise, entry to the resort will be denied. The hotel reserves the right to deny access to any supplier, contractor or entertainer if deemed not suitable with the property.
- Fireworks have to be confirmed 21 days prior to the event date at the latest in order to issue government and local permits. Fireworks, fire dancers or any fire-related entertainment can only be arranged on the beach due to safety regulations. Fire lanterns are not allowed at the property.
- Sound checks, or rehearsal of any entertainment will only be performed upon receiving permission from the resort. Please note that certain venues can only accommodate a limited variety of music and entertainment.
- The hotel asks that any set up, decoration or display should be discussed in advance as it would be preferable for it to be in keeping with the hotel style in terms of color and materials. In order to prevent damage to the fine fixtures and furnishings of The Sira, items may not be attached to a wall, floor, window, door or ceiling with nails, staples, tape or any other material. Creating holes in the gardens is also prohibited. Guests will be held responsible for any damage they may cause to the resort.
- All functions within the resort are subject to specific time and sound restrictions. At The Beach House, sound systems are permitted until 11:00 p.m. Should guests wish to continue playing music, it has to be at a very moderate level and subject to be inspected and agreed by the management. In the case of objection from in-house guests, the hotel reserves the right to adjust the volume or stop the music.
- The weather in Lombok is unpredictable, but generally April to October is the dry season and November to March is the wet season. It rains occasionally during the dry season. However, there are also many dry days in the wet season. Mornings tend to be drier than the afternoon but there is no guarantee to the final outcome. From November to March, a backup plan is compulsory in case of adverse weather conditions. A decision on whether to hold the function outdoors or indoors should be made five hours prior to the start of the function.
- The hotel will decide which venue will be used as a back-up if the weather proves to be unsuitable for the function to be held outdoors. Any decorations and setup will be improvised depending on the venue chosen and based on capacity and availability.

Guarantee, Deposit, and Cancellation Policy

- First payment of 25% of the total quoted fee is required to be received upon confirmation. The preferred wedding date will only be blocked once confirmation has been made.
- Second payment of 50% of the total quoted fee is required to be received 90 days prior to arrival by the latest.
- Final payment of the remaining fee is required to be received 45 days prior to the event date.
- The hotel shall be entitled to retain any of the deposits or payments made prior to the date of the event if a cancellation is made, either wholly or partially, by the wedding client or its affiliates, designees, or assignees, for any reason and actions that may be deemed a breach of this contract, other than “force majeure.”
- Payments must be settled either with a credit card or bank transfer.
